DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-44 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 3.1 and 37 CFR 1.475.

In accordance with these rules, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-4, 6-18 and 20-28, drawn to a cell handling device.

Group II, claims 5 and 19, drawn to a method for tissue regeneration.

Group III, claims 29-33, drawn to a tissue regeneration composition.

Group IV, claims 34-43, drawn to a cell handling device containing a tissue regeneration composition.

Group V, claim 44, drawn to a method for tissue regeneration using a cell handling device containing a tissue regeneration composition.

(a) An international or national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept.

Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those invention involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features.

The expression "special technical features" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

(b) An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) a product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
- (2) a product and a process of use of said product; or
- (3) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
- (4) a process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out said process; or
- (5) a product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out said process.

(c) If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combinations of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.

The groups of invention fall within category (4) a process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out said process.

PCT Rule 13.2 does not provide for multiple compositions or multiple methods of use within a single application. Thus, the first appearing composition/device (Group I) is combined with a corresponding first method of use (Group II) and the additional composition (Groups III and IV) and method claims (Group V) each constitute a separate group.

In addition to the requirement that a group of inventions must belong to one of the specific categories provided by PCT Rule 13.2, the inventions in the category, such as a composition and a method of use of the composition, must have a special technical feature that unites them. See Patent Rules 1.475, where a special technical feature is a contribution OVER THE PRIOR ART.

The expression "special technical feature" shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art (PCT Rule 13.2). Thus, a feature found in the prior art cannot be considered to be a special technical feature.

Since the cell handling device having a vessel, a mouth, and a gas permeable region is notoriously well known in the art (e.g. culture flasks with a cap having filter membrane for gas permeability), and also see OriGen PermaLife Bag (2001; <http://web.archive.org/web/20010307123107/http://www.origen.com/PermaLife.html>), no special technical feature unites these inventions in a category.

Thus, the inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features as demonstrated above.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
